Kudos

Without Small Press magazines, the majority of poets who are now household names wouldn't be where they are today. Carol Ann Duffy had work published in Acumen and the Rialto early on, while Simon Armitage was an Orbis contributor: reviews and poems. Thinking about sampling a copy, or taking out subs? Paypal

"Are you looking for a poem – something special for a child?
Tried yourself, got in a knot and now you're feeling wild?
You wanted something personal to make them feel unique
To say the things you needed but can't find the words you seek..."

THE FIND

is an absorbing autobiography of a Croatian war child who, after losing her family in Auschwitz, survived, due to a combination of luck, prayer, sheer guts and hard work. Arriving in England aged 16, without knowing a word of the language, she became a teacher and, in retirement, is now a freelance writer and poet. Now available as an ebook from:
